BIBLIOGRAPHY

FINAL SOURCE EXPLANATION

I have listed all books or sources read and used for the preparation of this book in the bibliography. However, not all sources were cited in the actual text because much of the information was the same from source to source so I choose the primary ones. I also did not list the pages because the written narrative does not match the order of sources read and noted and most items had multiple pages examined. It would have made the notes too complicated to follow. I have listed all sources researched if anyone wants to read more on the history of Sicily or World War II for example.
